

The Herald and News.

VOLUME LIII, NUMBER 81

NEWBERRY, S. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1916.

TWICE A WEEK, $1.50 A YEAR.

MEET TO DECLARE PARTY NOMINEES

Blease and Manning in Second Race for Governor—Hear One Contest—
Complete Vote.

Presidential Electors.

The State Democratic executive committee yesterday nominated the following presidential electors for South Carolina:

State at large: S. R. Mellichamp of Orangeburg and S. C. Carter of Chester.

First district: John R. Dingle of Summerton.

Second district: W. A. Byrd of Edgefield.

Third district: Henry L. Parr of Newberry.

Fourth district: R. W. Hamilton of Jonesville.

Fifth district: W. S. Hall of Gaffney.

Sixth district: W. L. Kinney of Blenheim.

Seventh district: Joe Sparks of Columbia.

Meeting yesterday in the library at the State house the State Democratic executive committee canvassed the returns and declared the result of the primary election held August 29. Nine presidential electors for South Carolina were nominated and will be voted on in the general election in November.

The vote for the three leading candidates for governor was as follows: C. L. Blease, 64,384; Richard I. Manning, 41,536; Robert A. Cooper, 31,205.

A second race was ordered between Mr. Blease and Mr. Manning.

Octavius Cohen of Monck's Corner appeared before the committee and asked that the Berkeley county board be reversed in its decision sustaining a challenge to his ballot. Mr. Cohen was challenged on the ground that he was not a resident of Berkeley county. His appeal was sustained.

The committee recommended that the following candidates, having received a majority of the votes cast for nominees of the party: For lieutenant governor, Andrew J. Blease; for secretary of state, W. Banks Dove; for comptroller general, Carlton W. Sawyer; for state treasurer, S. T. Carter; for adjutant general, W. W. Moore; for state superintendent of education, J. E. Swearingen; for attorney general, Thomas H. Peoples; for commissioner of agriculture, E. J. Watson.

Nominees for Congress.

The following were declared the nominees for congress: First district, Richard S. Whaley; Second district, James F. Byrnes; Fourth district, Sam J. Nicholls; Fifth district, D. E. Finley; Sixth district, J. Willard Ragsdale; Seventh district, A. F. Lever.

The following were declared the nominees for solicitor: Second circuit, R. L. Gunter; Third circuit, P. H. Stoll; Fourth circuit, J. Monroe Spears; Fifth circuit, Wade Hampton Cobb; Sixth circuit, J. K. Henry; Seventh circuit, K. P. Smith; Eleventh circuit, George Bell Timmerman; Fourteenth circuit, George Warren.

No candidates having received a majority of the votes, James Cansler of Tizah, in York county, and Albert S. Fant of Anderson county were declared to be in the second race for railroad commissioner.

Wyatt Aiken, incumbent, and Fred H. Dominick, having received the highest number of votes, were declared to be in the second primary for congress from the Third district.

Andrew J. Hydrick and Ed. C. Mann were declared to be in the second race for solicitor in the First circuit.

H. S. Blackwell and George T. Magill will make a second race for solicitor in the Eighth circuit.

F. M. Bryan and Thos. P. Stoney were declared to be in the second race for solicitor in the Ninth circuit.

J. Robert Martin and D. W. Smoak will make a second race for solicitor in the Thirteenth circuit.

The committee decided to bear the expense of telegraphing the votes of the National Guard from El Paso.

Boxes will be required for the second primary, but the managers will be allowed to send the ballots back to this State in envelopes.

Official Count.

The following is the official vote as declared by the committee:

For governor: Cole L. Blease, 64,384; Richard I. Manning, 41,536; Robert A. Cooper, 31,205; John Madison DesChamps, 307; John T. Duncan, 269.

For lieutenant governor: Andrew J. Blease, 64,389; E. C. L. Adams, M. D., 51,183.

For secretary of state: W. Banks Dove, 77,001; George W. Wightman, 58,554.

For comptroller general: Carlton W. Sawyer, 136,922.

For state treasurer: S. T. Carter, 79,255; D. W. McLaurin, 57,301.

For adjutant general: W. W. Moore, 135,866.

For state superintendent of education: J. E. Swearingen, 137,155.

For attorney general: Thomas H. Peoples, 135,812.

For commissioner of agriculture: E. J. Watson, 136,843.

For railroad commissioner: James Cansler, 51,032; Albert S. Fant, 36,565; S. W. D. Hampton, 24,602; W. H. Kelly, 15,282; W. T. Thrower, 12,231.

For solicitor:

First circuit: L. A. Hutson, 1,157; Andrew J. Hydrick, 2,275; Ed. C. Mann, 2,360; J. Stokes Salley, 2,205.

Second circuit: R. L. Gunter, 7,760.

Third circuit: P. H. Stoll, 8,184.

Fourth circuit: J. Monroe Spears, 10,800.

Fifth circuit: Wade Hampton Cobb, 8,404.

Sixth circuit: J. Harry Foster, 4,202; J. K. Henry, 5,910.

Seventh circuit: I. C. Blackwood, 7,938; A. E. Hill, 7,547.

Eighth circuit: H. S. Blackwell, 3,389; B. V. Chapman, 3,206; George T. Magill, 3,686; T. Frank McCord, 2,123.

Ninth circuit: F. M. Bryan, 1,924; William H. Grimbail, 1,620; Thomas P. Stoney, 2,052.

Tenth circuit: Leon L. Rice, 2,782; K. P. Smith, 5,955; J. R. Eargle, 2,722.

Eleventh circuit: E. L. Asbill, 2,646; J. W. Cox, 1,183; George Bell Timmerman, 5,335.

Thirteenth circuit: John M. Daniel, 2,480; H. H. Harris, 522; J. D. Langford, 2,232; J. Robert Martin, 5,434; David W. Smoaks, 3,250.

Fourteenth circuit: H. R. Padgett, 2,405; George Warren, 3,042.

For congress:

First district: J. G. Padgett, 5,097; Richard S. Whaley, 7,680.

Second district: James F. Byrnes, 11,348; Alvin Etheridge, 3,041.

Third district: Wyatt Aiken, 6,221; A. H. Dagnall, 4,000; Fred H. Dominick, 7,209; John A. Horton, 2,413; Henry C. Tillman, 4,995.

Fourth district: A. H. Miller, 2,691; Sam J. Nicholls, 18,962; D. B. Traxler, 4,934.

Fifth district: D. E. Finley, 9,861; W. F. Stevenson, 9,022.

Sixth district: James D. Evans, 1,457; Julius S. McInnes, 8,324; J. W. Ragsdale, 10,723.

Seventh district: A. F. Lever, 19,355.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND.

Wilbur W. Marsh, Treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, has appointed the following finance committee for Newberry.

Geo. B. Cromer, J. B. Hunter, W. H. Wallace, H. H. Abrams, Jno. M. Kinard, W. W. Cromer, M. L. Spearman, B. L. Dorrity and W. A. Hill.

The finance committee has appointed the following soliciting committees:

Ward One: Floyd Bradley, J. H. Baxter, and S. S. Cunningham.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES

Interesting Program for the Meeting.

There will be a Missionary institute of the Presbyterian churches held at Dominick Schoolhouse Thursday, September 14. This will be an all-day meeting with dinner served on the grounds.

Each Presbyterian church in Newberry county is requested to send representatives, whether it has a missionary society or not.

Everyone is cordially invited. Following is the program:

Morning session 10:30 o'clock. Song service. Devotional.

Roll call of churches. Greetings of pastor. Business. Minutes 1915.

Memorials. Address—Woman's Work. Song.

Address—Home Missions. Offering. Adjournment for dinner.

Afternoon session: 1:30 o'clock. Song. Prayer.

Historic sketch of Dominick church. Address—Cuba. Song.

Reading of constitution. Address—Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

Miscellaneous business. Benediction.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to all friends for the many thoughtful acts of kindness and sympathetic expressions of interest in the loss of our dear wife and mother. May God's richest blessings rest upon all those whose beautiful acts and kind words help us to bear this great loss.

J. M. Davis and Family.

THIEF ENTER MR. BAXTER'S HOUSE STEALS TWO PAIRS PANTS

It was at the early hour of four o'clock Tuesday morning when some sort of noise not familiar to the family was heard in the residence of Mr. P. F. Baxter, arousing the inmates of the dwelling. Officers of law were immediately phoned for and in response to the call Sheriff Blease, Deputy Dorroh and Policemen Cousins and Connelly promptly responded. Investigation had shown that two pairs of pants were missing, the same being the property of Mr. Baxter and his son Marion. The thief or two had evidently been frightened away before getting in full work, as the pants were the only articles stolen. The thief stole the pants and away he ran—to the fence across the road, where they were found on the fence as he had thrown them. The supposition is he thought there was money in the pockets, which there was not.

Freshly made tracts led to where a negro boy lived. He was arrested and held for the charge. Wednesday morning the case was called by Recorder Earhardt, when Joe Turner answered to the accusation. There being only circumstantial evidence against the boy, with no proof whatsoever to convict, he was accordingly dismissed.

MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Regular meeting of the Newberry County Medical society in Dr. Pelham's office Friday afternoon, September 8, at 3 o'clock.

Jno. B. Setzler.
Secretary.

Among the visitors to Wallhalla during the past few weeks were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. M. Riser, of Selma, Ala., who were most cordially welcomed among their many friends here. Mrs. Riser is pleasantly remembered here as Miss Florence Thompson, a daughter of the late J. W. F. Thompson. Mr. Riser is one of the most popular railroad men of his adopted State. He is a native of Newberry county, and on the occasion of their all too infrequent visits to South Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Riser never omit calling on friends in Newberry and Newberry counties.

SOCIETY.

Miss Minnie Salter was the charming hostess Friday afternoon at a party given to her Sunday School class, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Kibler. Five tables were placed about the lawn, and at each table there were interesting contests, after which a delightful ice course was served.

Miss Salter's guests were: Misses Caroline Weeks, Troxelle Wright, Claire Sligh, Mildred Reid, Elizabeth Harms, Florence Kibler, Elizabeth Wright, Colie Blease, Aileen Dunn, Abbie Gaillard. Messrs. Carol Baxter, Creighton Wicker, Emory Bowman, Ashby and Gary McGraw, Ernest Merchant, Henry Lornack and others.

The prize, a box of candy, was won by Miss Aileen Dunn.

One of the loveliest affairs of the week was the masquerade party given Friday evening by Miss Marguerite Matthews in compliment to her house guest, Miss Brooke Jones, of Edgefield. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. B. C. Matthews. Progressive conversation and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening and a delightful ice course and punch was served to about fifty guests. Among the pretty and unique costumes were, Spanish dancers, maids, sailors, Indians, soldiers, Chinamen, colonial dames, Japs, Red-Riding Hood, dolls.

Miss Ruby Goggans was hostess on Thursday morning to the members of the Les Casadores club. After a happy hour of chatting and fancy work, iced tea and sandwiches were served. Besides the members of the club present were Miss Ethel Ramage, of Fort Worth, Tex., Mrs. P. E. Way, Misses Annie Ray, Bess and Julia Kibler.

Little Miss Mary Marguerite Burns most delightfully entertained about 80 of her friends on last Tuesday afternoon the occasion being her twelfth birthday. She was showered with many pretty presents and best wishes. The afternoon was spent in playing different games the most attractive thing was a box of chocolate which the children walked for, Miss Ella Bowman and Master Thomas West were the winners. The guests were then served an ice-course by Misses Annie Bynum, Maud Epting, Gussie Rodelsperger and Ernestine Wicker.

A very delightful affair of the week was the party given by Miss Marguerite Burns in celebration of her twelfth birthday. Many interesting games were played, and the prizes were won by Miss Ella Bowman and Mr. Thomas West. After the games a delightful ice course was served. The young hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Burns, and Misses Maude Epting and Ernestine Wicker. About eighty-five friends were present.

Mrs. Ladson Eskridge was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the "Once a Week" club. Three tables were arranged on the piazza and here bridge was played. After the games a delightful salad course was served.

Mrs. Martha Adrian Rawl.

Lexington, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Martha Adrian Rawl, wife of P. I. Rawl, a well known farmer residing six or eight miles northwest of the town of Lexington, died suddenly on Sunday night, having been found dead Monday morning. Her husband knew nothing of her illness, and when he thought that it was time for her to arise on Monday morning he went to her bed and found her lifeless.

She was about 68 years of age, and leaves her husband and the following children, all of whom are grown: Mrs. J. B. Roberts, Mrs. Millegre Warl of Johnston, Mrs. Jeff B. Amick, Newberry, and George, Bowman, Jake, William, Shuman, John and Alfred Rawl.

Mrs. Rawl was a most lovable woman. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon.—The State.

BANK OF POMARIA IN A PROSPEROUS CONDITION

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Pomaria was held this week. The report of the officers showed the bank to be in a prosperous condition.

A dividend of 3 per cent was paid on a capital of $15,000 and a good sum carried to the surplus account. It is gratifying not only to the stockholders to know that this institution is making good but to the people of the community in which the bank is located as well as to the people of the entire county. Under the careful management of President Z. T. Pinner and Cashier John C. Aull the bank is moving forward and making money and serving the people of the Pomaria section faithfully and well.

Dr. Z. T. Pinner.

Dr. Pinner was reelected president and John C. Aull cashier and R. H. Hipp vice president and H. C. Hollaway attorney along with the old board of directors.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER (Rev. Edward Fulewider, Pastor.)

Nothing preventing, the following will be the program of divine services at the Lutheran church of the Redeemer next Sunday:

10:15 a. m. Sunday school.

11:15 a. m. The hour of worship.

The pastor will preach a sermon on the subject—"The Vision and The Task." The text will be taken from the Epistle lesson for the day, Acts 16; 9-15.

8:00 p. m. The evening service. The subject of the sermon will be—"Definiteness of Purpose in Christian Work."

The subject is of supreme importance just at this time. Every member of the church who reads this program is urged to come to the services Sunday night. Something will be said that may be of great help in trying to do your part as you pass through the world. Much desire and effort fail often because of no definite purpose.

The public is welcomed at all services.

Among those from Newberry in Columbia last Monday for the attractions were Mrs. W. H. Eddy, Miss Louise Counts, Mrs. F. D. Mower, Mrs. Cannon G. Blease, Miss Ethel Bowers, Messrs Jno. C. Adams, Raymond Fellers, E. S. Blease, I. H. Hunt, Bruce Douglas and family, Irvine Leslie, Harry Summer, W. A. Wherry, F. P. DeVore, C. D. Weeks, W. H. Lominaack, William Halfacre, Herman Langford, Henry Adams, Paul Adams, Karl Epting, Bynum Neel, Rastus Elson, James Epting, Jr., Irwin Satterwhite, T. E. Wicker, Yancey Dickert.

Rev. Mr. Blackwell at Smyrna.

Rev. D. J. Blackwell, of Quincy, Fla. was with us at Smyrna last Sabbath. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Wilson Saturday night, and dined with Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Clary on Sunday. Mr. Blackwell was at one time the beloved pastor of this flock, who were glad to meet him again. He was ordained at this church and served first pastorage here, after graduating from Columbia Theological Seminary. Mr. Blackwell holds a warm place in the hearts of this people.

T. C. C.

DR. JOSIAH MORSE TO SPEAK AT OPENING OF SCHOOLS

The city schools will open on Monday morning, September 18.

Dr. Kinard, the superintendent, is arranging for a public meeting on that day to be held in the Opera House at 10 o'clock in the morning. The children of the higher grades and of the high school will be present, and every man and woman in the city who is interested in the schools is urged to be present also.

Dr. Josiah Morse, head of the department of psychology and philosophy at the University of South Carolina, will be present and will make a short address on Community Spirit, especially in its relation to the city and the schools. Dr. Morse is deeply interested in this subject, and will doubtless say many things that the citizens of Newberry will be glad to hear.

Three or four business men will follow Dr. Morse in five minute addresses. A full programme of the meeting will be published later.

Beginning on next Wednesday, the superintendent will be in his office at the high school every morning at nine o'clock to meet pupils who are irregular in classification, or who need to be reexamined.

NEWBERRY COLLEGE WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 19.

The college will open on September 19. Two days will be given to examinations for entrance and promotion, and at 8:45 Monday morning September 21 the schedule of another session will begin.

Practically all of the old students will return, and the usual rate of increase in the enrollment is expected.

Professor Clyde L. Walker, graduate of the university of West Virginia in Electrical Engineering will take Professor Frank W. Chapman's place on the faculty. Professor Walker has had a successful experience both in teaching and in the actual practice of engineering.

Mr. James G. Driver will become Physical Director. Mr. Driver was for two years Director of Athletics at the University of South Carolina. He coached the football team there in 1912 which beat Clemson. He is widely known in the state, a native of Virginia, a graduate of William and Mary College and the University of Virginia. He has been coaching for many years.

Professors Voigt and Bowers will return to the college next year.

Central M. E. Church, South.

(Rev. F. E. Dibble, Pastor.)

Services for Sunday, September the 10th, will be as follows:

Morning service 11 a. m., subject of sermon, "The Father's Business," a message especially to church members. Let every member be present. Sunday school 4 p. m.

Epworth League 7:15 p. m.

Evening service 8 p. m., subject, "Idolatry in a Christian Land."

Let none neglect the House of God on His day. All are welcome at Central.

Miss Ruby Goggans was the charming hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Calvin Crozier chapter.

About twelve members were present and after the business meeting in which Miss Pauline Gilder was re-elected as president of the chapter, a delightful ice course was served.

A Method of Division.

L., who was full of pranks, was taken ill. "We must be careful," said his doctor. "I will send you a nurse of not less than fifty years of age."

"Rather," replied L., "send me two each twenty-five years old."—Gazettes de la Medecine.

Ambitious.

"Are you men ambitious?"

"Oh, very. Every man around the place is willing to do anybody's work but his own."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Little things are little things, but to do little things faithfully is a great thing.